ATTENDANCE POLICY

Purpose: The purpose of this attendance policy is to ensure active participation, engagement, and accountability among members at club events organized by NJIT SWE.

Attendance Expectations: All members are expected to attend club events whenever possible. These events serve as valuable opportunities for networking, learning, and fostering a sense of community within SWE. SWE will keep a record of attendance at each event. This record will include the names of attendees, event details, and date.

Consequence of Non-Attendance: As announced by the SWE Eboard, attendance at club events will be accounted for in the context of upcoming conferences and activities. Members with a consistent record of active participation may receive preferential consideration for conference attendance.

Excused Absences: SWE understands that unforeseen circumstances may prevent members from attending certain events. In such cases, members may submit a request for an excused absence or drop by during office hours, explaining the reason for their non-attendance.

Enforcement:

The enforcement of this attendance policy will be the responsibility of the SWE EBoard. Any concerns or disputes regarding attendance will be reviewed and resolved on a case-by-case basis.

Review and Revision:

This attendance policy will be periodically reviewed by the SWE leadership to ensure its effectiveness and relevance. Any necessary revisions will be made in consultation with the club's membership.

By adhering to this attendance policy, we can collectively create a more engaged and dynamic experience for all members.

SWE RECAP **

💌 EMMA B FOUNDATION INFO SESSION 🐙

On October 11, 2023, the NJIT campus had the privilege of hosting a remarkable event by the Emma B Foundation. The event served as a platform for inspiring women of color in the media sector and encouraging them to explore new horizons in their careers. A fellowship manager from the foundation came to our campus, bringing with them not only valuable insights but also some delightful snacks and drinks.

The event commenced with an insightful presentation about the Emma B Foundation's mission and objectives. Attendees gained a comprehensive understanding of the foundation's commitment to empowering women of color in the media industry. The recruiter engaged the audience in a thought-provoking discussion about the challenges and opportunities that women of color encounter in the media sector. This dialogue aimed to inspire and motivate future leaders.

One of the most exciting announcements of the evening was the foundation's interest in technical students with backgrounds in Computer Science and Information Technology. The Emma B Foundation is actively seeking talented individuals from these fields to join their team.

As an exceptional opportunity for NJIT students, the Emma B Foundation announced an internship role open to applications. The application deadline for this coveted role is October 27. This internship is a fantastic chance for aspiring professionals to gain hands-on experience in a dynamic and meaningful environment.

For those interested in applying for the internship, make sure to submit your application before the October 27 deadline. The Emma B Foundation is eager to welcome new talents who are committed to making a positive impact on the world of media.

Stay tuned for more empowering events and opportunities as we continue to foster diversity, equity, and inclusion within our NJIT community.

★MOTT MACDONALD OFFICE + NETWORKING SESSION★

SWE NJIT and Rutgers chapters recently embarked on an illuminating journey as we visited the Mott MacDonald office for an inspiring evening of exploration and connection. The event offered a unique blend of informative education, company insights, and invaluable advice on crafting cover letters and resumes.

Office Tour: Our members had the privilege of exploring the vibrant Mott MacDonald workspace, gaining insights into the company's culture, projects, and innovative initiatives. The tour provided an inside look at the dynamic environment where professionals work collaboratively to tackle real-world challenges.

Company Features: Mott MacDonald representatives shared their expertise on the company's core features, highlighting its commitment to engineering, sustainability, and making a positive impact on communities. Attendees learned about the diverse projects Mott MacDonald is involved in, and the vital role they play in shaping the future.

Resume and Cover Letter Insights: The evening wasn't just about physical surroundings; it was also a treasure trove of professional guidance. Attendees received valuable tips and advice on crafting effective resumes and cover letters, ensuring they stand out in the competitive job market. This knowledge is bound to be a game-changer in their career journeys.

Networking Opportunities: The event provided an excellent platform for attendees to connect with Mott MacDonald professionals, ask questions, and forge meaningful connections. These networking opportunities have the potential to open doors to internships, mentorship, and future collaboration.

Overall, the Mott MacDonald Office Tour and Networking Session left our members feeling enlightened and motivated to continue their engineering journeys.
